Editorial

Ok, some questions for you this month.... did you know that there is a minor injuries service at Grantham hospital from 6:30pm until 11:30pm? Well, by the time you're reading this, there won't be. That service ends on 31st May. Did you know that a round trip taxi fare (based on local authority rates) at 2am from Colsterworth to Peterborough A&E will set you back £138? Or that a round trip taxi fare at 2am to Queen's Medical Centre will set you back £189? Or that a 2am round trip to Lincoln County A&E will leave you £230.40 poorer? I thought not. (These figures were obtained using yourtaximeter.com) All is not lost though as it's about half these prices during the day plus you'd only have to go to Grantham as the A&E is open until 6:30pm. Therefore, plan your emergencies carefully folks.

Stuart Whitcombe

Spotlight on F.O.C.U.S (Friends Of Colsterworth United Societies)

KURLING

Isn't it great to welcome the warmer weather? We thought that it might deter some of our Kurling members but it doesn't seem to be the case. Maybe it's the chocolate biscuits that's the attraction! Recently I had to call in on a Thursday session to do my Treasurer's bit and it was really nice to meet the Thursday players. Some I knew already but quite a few were new to me but I was made to feel very welcome so thank you. Will try and visit a bit more often. Our next planned event is a day trip to York. This has proved very popular as there is only one place on the coach remaining. We are delighted to welcome some new guests and hope you have a lovely time with us. Just a warning, we can get a bit rowdy on the return journey and there may be a bit of a sing song if John brings his mouth organ.

LUNCHEON CLUB

The latest lunch was at Paul's in Bottesford, a venue I have been to several times but not this time (I love a good meal but nothing, in my opinion beats a day with my lovely little Granddaughter). Anyway, I have it on good authority that the visit was a great success, food superb and although it was not necessary to pre order, the service was excellent. Several members have suggested that a return visit is made. If you are interested in joining us, ring June on 861400. Sadly a couple of our members are still quite poorly. We send them our very best wishes and hope that they will feel better soon. Two other members have recently had operations and are progressing nicely. An observation. How come when I choose the shortest queue in the supermarket there is always a problem with a price, an item won't scan and the customer wants to chat to the checkout lady about how bad her bunions are! Answers in the usual way please.

GAMES AFTERNOON

Our next games afternoon will be sometime in September. We look forward to seeing our regular attendees and welcome new ones.

Fully Qualified S.A.C. Dip. F.H.P

With last year's resolution at the annual meeting of the National Federation bringing the nation's attention to the problem of Plastic Soup, we can only hope that this year's proposed resolution on Mental Health Matters will bring the same result and that more awareness will be made to help those afflicted. Certainly since the resolution was proposed by an Institute way back in September of last year, television programmers have picked up on it with programmes and even "soaps" bringing the problem to the attention of viewers. Our President, Sandra Quinsee, led the discussion with a quiz to give us some idea just how many people are affected with mental issues. Following a detailed discussion, the vote for the resolution was a resounding "all in favour".

We weren't up to a full membership attendance owing to holidays, illness and community projects, but we once again welcomed June from Corby Glen W.I. (Sue was off playing golf with the W.I. ladies). Nevertheless we weren't idle, we had a most important task to do. Liz, on hostess duty, had baked a selection of scones. We had to judge them as they were "guinea pigs" for her entry at the Make, Bake and Show event later in the year. The task was taken seriously and to make sure that she had our full judgement, we had to have a second one just to be sure that she had got the recipe just right. Oh, and the Victoria sponge, courtesy of Shirley Cox, went the same way (well, we must keep up the W.I.'s reputation of being excellent cake bakers, it's what the public expects isn't it?). Both of them were assisted by Peggy who deputised for Mary, sunning herself on a beach somewhere exotic.

The Federation have more events lined up for us, a Speakers' Corner when we get to find speakers to come along to our meetings. There is another lunch, this time at Grantham when we shall hear Air Commodore Dawn McCafferty CBE Commandant of the R.A.F. Air Cadets with a talk entitled "Thirty five years in the R.A.F. and still counting". There is another quiz night at Hale Magna and a driving awareness event at Welbourn. We heard how Sandra got on at the Jute bag workshop which she had attended and she showed us what she had made. Very good it was too. We also signed up for another year on the W.I. lottery. Tickets are still available if you missed out this time.

Oh yes, and we also received a thank-you letter from last month's speaker, Dawn Oska, with details of the requirements which a fund raiser has to meet before doing a "wing walk". Following "my friends" volunteering my services (well, it had been on my bucket list for some time, can't deny it), but sadly I do not qualify to fulfill my ambition. I should have done it when I weighed six stones with a waist measurement of twenty four inches. About the only thing I could tick was to be under six feet tall and I should have to bribe the Doctor to give consent (I bet my old doctor would have signed me as fit just for a laugh). BUT, if any In Touch reader would like to try it, I'll put you in touch with Dawn. We are to hold a chocolate tombola at the village Garden Fete in June and there should be a new quiz by then too (done the answers, just got to fit the clues to them). If you don't catch one at the fete you will find them on the mobile Post office as they have kindly offered to sell them for us. We are also entering the Scarecrow Festival, so it will be a busy busy few weeks for us. But then, when is it never busy? Competition joint winners for an item initial B were Peggy Taylor, Sandra Quinsee and Helen Scorrer. Flower of the month winner was Sandra and Jil Watson. Our next meeting, should you care to join us, is on 19th June when Rosemary Pike will tell and show us the Magic of Stained Glass. Competition is an orange coloured item (Jaffas by the score). You will find us at the Sports and Social Club at the usual time of two o'clock. See you there then, you will be most welcome.

News from Woolsthorpe Manor

This year the Manor House looks a bit different as we've changed the feel of some of the rooms to bring more of a sense of Isaac Newton and what he did here into focus. People always say what a lovely house it is and how they could live there (maybe not in the winter though...) but we'd like to help visitors to imagine Isaac in those rooms, drawing, experimenting, thinking, so some of the domestic things have gone and there are other things to see. So if you haven't been for a while, perhaps now is a good time to plan a visit!

Country Craft Weekend on Saturday and Sunday 9 - 10 June - craft and food stalls from local makers. Entry included in admission price, National Trust members free.

Looking ahead - our Summer Holiday Workshops for children begin next month, on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 25 July to 16 August. This year our themes are Bug Hunting on 25-26 July and 8-9 August, and Seeing is Believing - activities around light, sight, lenses and other visual stuff - on 1-2 and 15-16 August. £3 per child plus admission, free admission (not workshops) for National Trust members.

We're looking forward to Gravity Fields in September when the Manor will be one of the main venues for talks and school activities - see the website for details <https://gravityfields.co.uk/>

COLSTERWORTH & DISTRICT GARDENERS & ALLOTMENT HOLDERS ASSOCIATION

We had wonderful weather for our May visit to the Herb Nursery at Thistleton. This attracted a large attendance, with twenty-two members and four visitors enjoying the hospitality of Peter and Christine Bench, who run this well-established family business.

Christine gave us a brief introduction to the origins of the Nursery, then we enjoyed wandering around the grounds and looking at the wide selection of plants in the sales area. The selection of plants - herbs, wildflowers, cottage garden perennials and pelargoniums - was so tempting that many members went home with a box full of their purchases. Some even filled two!

Our meeting on June 11th is an Open Evening - and our speaker is Andrew Mikolajski, a well-known gardening author, lecturer and speaker. His talk is on growing plants in containers - not just the conventional bedding, but a wide variety of plants in varied containers. He'll also advise us on selecting the right pot, box or unusual item for the type of plant we're using. He has a very interesting website at <http://www.andrewmikolajski.com/> and our booking appears there on his 2018 Calendar. The charge for visitors is only £3 (refreshments included) for what promises to be both an entertaining and informative evening - we do hope you'll join us. For further information phone 860312.

NATURAL HISTORY BULLETIN

In our parishes Red Kite and Buzzards are an everyday occurrence - almost taken for granted. This is astonishing considering that both species were not found at all in Lincolnshire during the 20th century. In May they were a magnificent sight, soaring on the thermals. The kite is distinguished from the buzzard by its forked tail and it has wings bent at the shoulders. Both have the long, broad wings which provide maximum lift. Both spread their wing tip feathers to reduce turbulence. Their flexible tails are used to manoeuvre.

The Sparrowhawk belongs to the same birds of prey group, the accipiters. Its mode of stalking prey is by first concealing itself in shrubs or small trees and then swooping down. It is not often seen gliding on the thermals.

One was watched, achieving this only with some difficulty. The problem seemed to be, in taking off vertically, to rise on the column of cold air and achieve enough height. After several attempts and much flapping of wings it reached the bubble of warm air which supported it in a few downward glides. Swifts are back, a complete contrast in flight, built for speed, their scimitar wings slicing through the air. Their lives are spent on the wing. They cannot take off from the ground on their small weak legs. A fledgling's first flight from its high nest must be successful if it is to survive. All birds have characteristic ways of moving. How they take off and land, walk or hop or paddle, climb, soar, swoop and dive. It adapts them to different lives, and helps us distinguish them.

Butterflies have survived the long wet period in the Spring. Their wings are remarkably water repellent. During hibernation a very cold spell is more likely to destroy the parasites which can plague all overwintering stages. The result this year has been plenty of reports of Small Tortoiseshells, Peacocks, and Comma (but not Red Admiral), Brimstone, Small white, Green Veined White and abundant Orange Tips. Holly Blue and Speckled Wood have again appeared early. In Twyford Wood both Dingy and Grizzled Skipper have been seen. It is hoped that Green Hairstreak will also be reported. Mason Bees and Mining Bees have joined Bumble bees and Honey Bees in the gardens.

In May many woodland plants are still in flower, before the canopy closes over. At the same time the meadow flowers are out. On the verge the Red Campion favours the shade of hedges and the White Campion is out in the open, amongst the grasses.

To look for in June

Young mammals are about but most are both nocturnal and keep well out of sight. All records of summer migrants especially the Cuckoo are particularly welcome. Turtle Doves have not been seen for the last three years. Butterflies like the Meadow Brown and the Common Blue should be easily seen, but the Small Copper and the Skippers are more elusive. Our local speciality, the limestone flowers, including Bladder Campion, should be at their best. I look forward to all your records and observations at 61

Colsterworth Church Isaac Newton Project

"We must have churches that are living, being buildings - for the community" Bishop of Lincoln

We are pleased to announce that we have been awarded a grant of £5,000 from the Lincoln Diocese's Transformation Fund for the Newton Project. This will be added to the grant already received from the Heritage Lottery Fund and will enable experts to advise us on the best ways of restoring the Newton Chapel, on updating and improving the facilities of the church, and on creating a heritage learning centre focussed on faith and science in Newton's life and work. We are now in the process of appointing an architect and a heritage consultant to explore our options and develop detailed plans for the next stage of the project.

While we want to make the church more welcoming and accessible for communal worship and private meditation, we also want to make it more comfortable, more flexible and better equipped, so that it can serve as an important and useful venue for all members of the local community. To this end we shall shortly be starting a consultation process to ask for ideas about what activities and events could take place in our reordered church.

Project Leader
